New York Gets in Band Wagon and Moves to Make Nomination by Acclamation-Delegates in a Great Demonstration

Baltimore, July 2.-Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey today was nominated for the presidency by the nomination was made after Under-wood had been withdrawn, Clark had released his supporters and New York tion of Wilson by acclamation.

There was objection to this plan As the final roll call came on, state after state fell into line for the New Jersey executive, piling up an overwhelming majority.

The result was received with tumfiltuous demonstrations by delegates

Woodrow Wilson gained 108 votes on the forty-third balot, the first cast today at the Democratic national convention and the hope for a break appeared at hand. Illinois' fiftyeight delegates propelled the movement and gains were made also from Connecticut, Idaho, Iowa, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, North Carolina, Tennessee Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Hawaii.

Wilson's vote was 602 a majority of the convention. It was the highest vote he had received and the vote of 329 cast for Mr. Clark was the lowest received by him during the prolonged balloting. When the result was announced the demonstration for Wilson was as enthusiastic and protracted as the weary delegates could make it. Wilson lacked only 124 of the necessary two-thirds to nominate. The final break came this afternoon at the beginning of the forty-sixth ballot. Wilson had received 633 votes on the forty-fifth with only 725 1-3 necessary to nomination Senator Bankhead quickly withdrew Underwood. Senator Stone of Missouri, in be-half of Champ Clark, released all Clark delegates at the same time saying Missouri would vote for him to Bell, of California, attempted to explain California's vote and was howled down. The convention was eager to hear the announcement of Wilson's nomination which had now become apparent.

California stood by Clark to the last but announced it would move, after the ballot, to make the nomination unanimous.

Formally Declared Nominee. Chairman James formally declared Woodrow Wilson the nominee of the convention for president of the United States at 3:35 p. m. There was a demonstration.

A tremendous demonstration followed the announcements of Wilson's nomination by acclamation. Cheer after cheer swept the hall and was taken up by the crowds outside.

The convention adjourned until 9 m, when nomination s for vice presdent will be made. At noon the main body of delegates were in place, but Chairman James had not appeared; the galleries were filled, eager and expectant. Convention called to order at 12:09

Balloting was resumed after brief preliminaries. The chairman announced that disorderly demonstrations would not be tolerated and the galleries would be cleared if neces-

Senator Bankhead has gone latform and it is reported he will withdraw Underwood. Bankhead spoke amid breathless llence. He said Underwood had entered the convention hoping to be the nominee. But his chief desire was to eradicate every vestige of section feeling. That had now been demonstrated by the liberal support given the Alabama candidate. "But I think the time has come to recognize that he cannot be nominated in this convention nor can he be used to defeat any other candidate," Bankhead concluded.

"Vice President?" queried a delegate from the floor.

"No," shouted Bankhead, "he will not turn from the important duties he is performing to take such an office as vice president."

Underwood would remain where he was, doing his great constructive work, Bankhead went on, and he expressed hope no one would further urge the Alabama candidate for vice president Mr. Underwood directs me to withdraw his name from this convention, said Bankhead, amid impressive silence, adding a tribute of thanks from Underwood for the sincere and loyal support given him. hall began to fill by 11 o'clock, but delegates, wearled with the long night sessions and numerous roll calls, were late appearing. Free admission was again an attraction of the crowds, which filled the galleries and massed solidly in the areas flanking and back of the delegates. Cool breezes through the upper windows added comfort to the day and kept the flags fluttering. The New York delegation arrived early for the purpose of holding a caucus. The stand-pat element in the delegation, which thus far has been in the ascendancy, was for standing by Clark through thick and thin, but the Clark men conceded that there was a considerable element that felt that the time was near for a change.

The New York delegates were still in caucus when the convention met.

The information that came from the caucus room was that the New York vote would continue to be cast At 12:09, Chairman James took his place on the platform. James' voice, worn by a week of shouting was husky as he announced the Rev. George T. Grose, of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, of Baltimore, as chaplain of the day who offered prayer. The clerk of the convention announced another extension of time to July 15 for the validation of railroad tickets held by delegates.

At 12:15 Chairman James directed the calling of the roll for the forty-bird time. There was a general imrression that today's session would find some means of breaking the deadlock. In Arizona, on the forty-third vote, Clark lost one vote to Bryan. Connecticut showed a gain of two for Wilson. They left the Clark col-

Governor McCreary, chairman of the delegation, argued that the instructions of the Kentuckians would not allow a break. The Wilson men did not press the point, although evidently confident of a vote in the delegation In Louisiana Wilson gained two and in Michigan eight. New York stopped for what for a few minutes looked like a Wilson William landslide. Representative Sulzer announced the New York vote as 90 for Clark, as heretofore. This dispelled all hope of a nomination on this ballot. The delegation had decided in caucus to continue to cast its 90 votes for Clark. The vote in the caucus showed 78 for Clark, 10 for Wilson and 2 for Underwood.

He asserted that at a caucus this morning the delegation had decided to enforce the unit rule for the first time. Wilson had se-cured a majority of the delegation and the state's 24 votes were cost for him. The Wilson adherents cheered the Virginia vote, but from forces there went up a shout of: 'Ryan and Bryan.'
